1. International Area Organization (INTO) Executive Board officers are expected to attend, if possible, all FMCA international conventions, INTO rallies, and meetings of the INTO Executive Board and Board of Directors. Their duties include, but are not limited, to the following:

PRESIDENT

The President, as INTO's chief executive officer, has the duty and responsibility to promote INTO's welfare and progress, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and Executive Board, and exercise supervision and control of the affairs and business of INTO. He/She shall perform all duties incident to his/her office and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by the Bylaws of INTO. He/She shall be responsible for planning and implementing an annual INTO rally unless requested by FMCA not to have an INTO rally.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

The Senior Vice President shall, in the absence or disability of the President, or in the event of his/her refusal to act, perform all the duties of the President relating to INTO. When so acting, he/she shall have the powers of and be subject to the restrictions of the President. The Senior Vice President shall assist the President and shall perform the duties assigned by the President, the Executive Board, and/or the Board of Directors. The Senior Vice President shall assist the President with the overall planning of the annual INTO rally, including financial control and allocation, and the identification and evaluation of proposed rally sites. He/She shall assist the President in visiting already formed Chapters and in forming new International Area Chapters. A report of each visit identifying Chapter name, date and brief description of issues discussed shall be submitted to the President. He/She shall coordinate with the Vice Presidents visits with Chapters who meet during the international conventions.

VICE PRESIDENTS 1, 2, 3, and 4

The four Vice Presidents shall perform all duties and directives as designated by the President and Senior Vice President. They shall assist the President and Senior Vice President in visiting already formed Chapters and in forming new International Area Chapters. They shall visit with Chapters who meet during the international conventions and shall represent INTO to the Chapters and represent the Chapters to INTO. A report of each visit identifying Chapter name, date and brief description of issues discussed shall be submitted to the President. They shall help to secure volunteers from the Chapters for the INTO Rally and FMCA conventions.

SECRETARY

The Secretary shall perform all duties incident to the office, and such duties as may be required by the Bylaws or which may be assigned by the President, Executive Board and/or Board of Directors. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the Executive Board and annual meetings, shall certify all votes taken, and shall maintain a record of the Executive Board Officers and the members of the Board of Directors. He/She shall be custodian of permanent records and shall be responsible for correspondence. He/She shall be responsible for notifying the FMCA National office of the any changes to the Organization's Bylaws, providing them with a copy of the revised Bylaws. The Secretary will submit the annual certification report to the FMCA National office. The Secretary shall prepare for the annual meeting by preparing voting credentials for the Board of Directors and by obtaining FMCA's official Governing Board attendance roster to identify the voting delegate for each Chapter. He/She shall arrange for checking in each Chapter's voting member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board members and for determining if a quorum is present for the annual meeting.

TREASURER

The Treasurer shall perform all duties incident to the office, as designated by the Executive Board and/or Board of Directors, as required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws. He/She shall receive all funds and pay all bills of INTO under the direction of its officers and Directors. The Treasurer shall make a financial report at each meeting. Within one month after expiration of his/her term of office, he/she shall deliver to the incoming Treasurer all monies, vouchers, books and papers in his/her custody, with all postings made to the date of delivery. The Treasurer shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities. All such funds shall be deposited in the name of INTO in banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected by the Treasurer and approved by the Executive Board. The Treasurer shall file the required IRS tax forms annually. He/She shall prepare an annual budget for INTO for review with the Executive Board and for approval during the annual meeting by the Board of Directors. He/She shall render to the President, Executive Board or Board of Directors, whenever it is requested, an account of any and all transactions made and the financial conditions of INTO. At the expiration of his/her term of office, the Treasurer shall, within thirty (30) days, submit his/her records for examination and approval by the audit committee.

2. The Immediate Past President of this Organization shall serve in an advisory capacity only to the Executive Board. His/Her attendance at meetings of the Executive Board shall not be counted in determining if a quorum is present.
3. The annual meeting, which is also the required business meeting, shall be held during FMCA's National convention scheduled during the fiscal year.
4. The President, with the approval of the Executive Board, may by resolution, authorize any officer or agent to enter any contract, or execute and deliver a binding instrument, in the name of and on behalf of INTO. Such authority may be general or confined to a specific instance. Unless authorized, no officer or agent shall have the power or authority to bind INTO or render it liable monetarily for any purpose.
